

XM radio should have the right to broadcast whatever its subscribers are willing to pay for and listen to. Let normal competition be the judge.